MONDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1926 THE PORTSMOUTH DAILY TIMES PAGE ELEVEN

Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for seven children of two families who live in Jobsville, near the C. & O. bridge, as a result of a fire, started in a coke pot, which destroyed both homes and all household effects, Sunday morning.

Among, fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, had been given a new wash boiler for Christmas. Sunday morning in front of his home, playing with his present, he placed the boiler over a coke pot, which was burning briskly. Presently the boiler caught fire. By the time the flames were discovered the old shed, sharing the home of Albert Brown, was in flames.

Albert, eight years of age, started the fire in a bonfire, when the flames got way through the fences and began to eat her young sister, Marybland, aged two. Firemen stated that they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl was rescued from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both homes were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each home, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children, Noah, 16; Hilda, 14; Ellen, 10; Anna, 8; Ernest 4; Maryland 2; Ruth 6 months, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children, Ray, 4; Lucille, 2, and Elbert, 3 months.

To the persons families have come the services of friends and relatives. They have been granted the use of a vacant house on Gold Bonnet Road, Sciotoville, and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community service the they have been supplied with food, bedding and clothing, to make that Christmas will not be black and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toys and holiday gifts. Through the efforts of Fire Chief Robert Lenkins and members of the Fire Department two truckloads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

2 families, 11 children are made homeless by fire edited

Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for seven children of two families who live in Jobsville, near the C. & O. bridge, as a result of a fire, started in a coke pot, which destroyed both homes and all household effects, Sunday morning.

Among, fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, had been given a new wash boiler for Christmas. Sunday morning in front of his home, playing with his present, he placed the boiler over a coke pot, which was burning briskly. Presently the boiler caught fire. By the time the flames were discovered the old shed, sharing the home of Albert Brown, was in flames.

Albert, eight years of age, started the fire in a bonfire, when the flames got way through the fences and began to eat her young sister, Marybland, aged two. Firemen stated that they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl was rescued from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both homes were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each home, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children, Noah, 16; Hilda, 14; Ellen, 10; Anna, 8; Ernest 4; Maryland 2; Ruth 6 months, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children, Ray, 4; Lucille, 2, and Elbert, 3 months.

To the persons families have come the services of friends and relatives. They have been granted the use of a vacant house on Gold Bonnet Road, Sciotoville, and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community service the they have been supplied with food, bedding and clothing, to make that Christmas will not be black and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toys and holiday gifts. Through the efforts of Fire Chief Robert Lenkins and members of the Fire Department two truckloads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up a collection and are aiding in collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia street station. They will be glad to call for all donations in the way of clothing, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Cabin Mission and the Boy Hut Leaguers have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 24—(AP)—Peter Cirillo, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot, was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing one of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the home of a friend.

Cirillo, who was shot through the abdomen in the battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was soon convinced that a brief, severe, but not mortal wound would also be added.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cirillo, telling him the city would save him all the expense and hospitalization he should have chosen to die.

The two were supposed to be the poker game at the home of Fred Strauss in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders asked Cirillo on the side when he failed to obey. Angered, Cirillo drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, identified here as Benjamin Bernstein and Samuel Chaiet, were dropped by Cirillo's bullets as they turned the doorknob. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Baron Mendel, a third, who was an admirer, was killed by a shot from one of the players, who himself was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two made up into Cirillo.
